

Hull York Medical School

Formal Complaints Form

This form is to be used by all students who wish to submit a Formal Complaint to the Hull York Medical School Board of Studies under the Code of Practice on Investigation and Determination of Complaints.

It is assumed that in making a formal complaint the student will have first taken their complaint through the informal stage if appropriate.

All students are strongly encouraged to seek help in submitting this complaint form, and should do so from either the Students Union in Hull and York and/or also the Hull York Medical School Student Support Office.
